

ACPO Fraud Forum

Tackling Economic Crime: Where are we now and what changes are required?

Meeting the challenges of a changing landscape

Date: Thursday 26th and Friday 27th May 2011

Venue: De Vere Conference Centre, Wokefield Park, Near Reading

The ACPO Economic Crime Portfolio will be hosting their next fraud forum in May 2011. This two day event will debate the key challenges facing the counter fraud community at a time of great uncertainty politically and economically.

The event will discuss possible solutions for tackling fraud and encourage feedback from delegates on ways to improve the effectiveness of existing fraud prevention tactics.

Confirmed conference speakers so far include: Commissioner Adrian Leppard of City of London Police and Dr Bernard Herdan, CEO of the National Fraud Authority.

There will also be a networking dinner and reception for all delegates on the evening of 26th May. Delegate fee's include both days at the conference, accommodation, catering and delegate pack. Click here to register now.

The event will cover the following areas and more:

Private Sector Delegates - £390

Public Sector Delegates - £266
